FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

At Morehead.

During the intervals music was disengaged by the Morehead string band.

Within a few minutes the deposits amounted to $15,000 and the president said he expected them to reach $30,000 during the day. (The stationery was printed and paid for by our ADVOCATE PUP Co.)

The writer was the guest of Mrs. Will Young for dinner at Hotel Osborne and left on the 12:45 for Lexington where he spent the afternoon on business.

We close by extending our best wishes.

The Mt. Sterling people present were Mrs. Amelia Young, A. T. Wood, A. W. Sutton and the writer.

We have often requested that religious items concerning the various churches be given us by some one of the congregation who knows. If anything of special importance is to occur or has occurred we would be pleased to know it and we usually try to find out. We have heard of criticisms because the ADVOCATE has more news concerning the Baptist and Christian Churches than of others. This should be easily understood. If a man has a sweet-heart or a wife he is supposed to love, know more of and associate with his own more than he does with the sweet-heart or wife of the other man. Now dear brethren and sisters possess your souls in peace, and give to us a helping hand filled with church news.

Welcome.

Prof. Milton Elliott and family arrived at North Middletown last week. He has assumed charge of the K. C. & B. College and will be ready for the fall term. An educator of experience, a cultured Christian gentleman, he comes again to central Kentucky. As such we welcome him.

Good, thorough work will be done, at very cheap rates: Board, washing, lights, fuel, tuition and music ten months $200. Address him for further information.

Too Warm for Fitzpatrick.

A Jackson Ky. dispatch says: Burns Fitzpatrick, who hung the jury that tried Jett and White here for the murder of Marcus, has gone to Jackson county, his neighbors in Magoffin county making it so hot for him that he could not live there. He had lived in Magoffin but a short time.

Near Caney in Morgan county, Robert Keeton, step-son of Parish Arnett, was killed by Samuel Brown.

The Fogg Family Association.

Will hold its Second Reunion on Thursday, August 20, in Convention Hall, Casino Building, Hampton Beach, N. H. All Fogg connections, by marriage or otherwise, are cordially invited to be present. Ample accommodations, at reasonable rates, can be secured at the Beach.

N. B.—You are especially invited to remain for a social time in the evening.

Mrs. A. J. Fogg, Secretary, Room 601, Tremont Bld., Boston. The Fogs of our country are of this family.

Alum Baking Powders.

There are so many alum baking powders about, most of which are represented to be made of cream of tartar, that the following list of powders in which chemists have found alum will be of value:

BON BON,
1900,

SWEETHEART.

The housekeeper should bear in mind that alum makes a cheap baking powder. It costs but two cents a pound, while cream of tartar costs thirty. The quality of the powder is, therefore, usually indicated by the price.

From Abroad.

LETTER NO. XXI.

JERICHO AND JORDAN NO. 2.

JERICHO, March 11, 1903.

Dear Judge: Where I crossed in a boat the Jordan is about 150 feet wide and fifteen feet deep. It is an exhilarating retreat from the dust and heat of a sunburnt plain, for a weary pilgrim seeking rest and cool, refreshing shade on the swift and eddying waters. Its evergreen belt of jungle, and trees whose overhanging branches are washed by the hurrying stream, the sudden bends in its serpentine course, the swish of its swirling eddies swashing against the tortuous banks, the incessant play of color through the variegated walls of verdure and upon the brown and turbid waters, are some of the features that lend romantic charm to a stay upon its restless bosom. The sycamore-fig whose horizontal limbs attracted little Zacheus, the "reed shaken with the wind" (Matt. 11:7), growing twelve feet tall in dense, extensive brakes amongst poplars, willows, tamarike, acacias and gorgeous oleanders, and multitudes of brilliant flowers, are some varieties of vegetation that adorn this strange landscape that lies a thousand feet below the ocean level. In this deep trench of 65 miles from Galilee to the Dead Sea, the busy Jordan winds its way 100 miles and pours its fresh, cool waters into that crystal sea of salt.

This is the famed baptismal river. In this eccentric stream, the like of which no other land has ever known, Naaman, the Syrian warrior washed away his deadly leprosy. Elisha said to him: "Go bathe seven times in Jordan." When his fit of indignant rage subsided, he meekly "went down and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh came again unto the flesh of a little child" —2 Kings 5:14.

Higher the great forerunner,

John the Baptist, summoned "Jerusalem and all Judea, and all the region round Jordan, and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins"—Matt. 3:5-6. But the deathless fame of this river rests upon the fact that Jesus himself was here baptized and, under the opened heavens and descending Spirit, was declared to be the Son of God.

"And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove: and coming upon him; and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased!"—Matt. 3:17. From that day Jordan has been as sacred to the Christian as a mother's grave, and myriad yearn seek baptism in its consecrated waters.

The setting sun has spread over me the shadowy mantle of Quarantine.

I turn to look again upon the desolation to those demoniac peaks and rifted rocks, where the battle of Satan with our gentle, loving Christ raged for forty days and nights. Facing again the east, fantasy recalls to those mountain monuments of Moses the vanquished form of one, who, in a far off age, fought and lost on the heights over against Jericho.

The real field of strife was the soul of a gigantic man where greed and conscience struggled for mastery—and greed won. This piteous and majestic man was the most noted and eloquent preacher of his century.

All the churches wanted him, except the narrow-minded set of unprogressive refugees whom Moses had led out of Egypt. The rudeness and intolerance of the Mosiac church had excited the hostility of all the liberal and cultured people and churches round about them. In fact, ever since they "were baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea," they had become illiberal and exclusive—a constant element in the religious world and an invincible obstacle to the progress of the world.

Hitherto there had arisen but one great leader amongst them with liberal tendencies in clined to open communion.

He was the most eloquent man the denomination had produced, and was able to lead the common people into a union service and com-

monunion with a branch of the cultured and liberal clergymen of Egypt.

But some of the old leaders came suddenly upon the scene, broke up the union service and summarily excluded 3,000 of the participants from their church.

Aaron saved himself only by sudden show of penitence and confession. This was the sect of ex-clusives against whom King Balak

United Moab and Midian and invoked the eloquence of the illustrious evangelist, the son of Beor,

whose home was far away at Pethor

by the great river that used to water the garden of Eden.

The first embassy failed to make terms with the great preacher.

A second commission, composed of princes of the royal blood and bearing golden credentials, was more successful.

The great talker came.

The infection of his eloquence reached the very beast that conveyed him to the scene of service.

In those

queer old days it required more glittering ceremony to install a great preacher in his evangelistic pulpit than to inaugurate two or three kings.

Beadles, palm bearers and banner-bearers; choristers, horn blowers, billposters and stirrupholders—all selected from the highest dignitaries of the kingdom.

Balak, the son of Zippor, had anticipated all these indispensable

prerequisites for a sweeping success. The august preacher was thus conducted to an eminence

overlooking the camp of Israel,

where, all unconscious of the impending peril preparing to unlock his jaws on Pisgah, Moses and Joshua with the millions of Israel

stood amongst the fragrant acacias,

Balak and the flower of Moab and Midian stood all expectant.

This mighty wizard of the tongue was to convert or stampede with incu-

table panie; paralyze or disperse

this impudent and arrogant sect,

and play his invincible hoodoo upon all the enemies of the Church of Balak.

They conducted him to the gorgeous pulpit.

What must have been the surprise and chagrin of Balak when the mighty evangelist

turned disdainfully from the elaborate pulpit, and with a sweet and sanctified haughtiness that won the ladies and shrivelled Balak and its court said: "Do you take me to be a one-barrel preacher?" It must be understood here and now that I am a seven-shooter, and unless you hustle and prepare seven pulpits, this meeting ends right

here before it begins.

Everybody realized at once the appalling

bluntness of Balak, and in a short time seven elegant pulpits shed

their splendor on Pisgah.

For some reason the old electric sermons were revamped to fit the new theology did not produce the expected result. The meeting was a flat failure. But for a consideration the Mesopotamian preacher gave counsel to Balak that wrought

temporary disaster in the Mosiac

Church. He said: "No eloquence or argument can break through the impregnate prejudices of this sect

so sudden with ignorance and superstition; but they are weak on the social side. Entrust this campaign to me and the society women, and Israel will soon fall before you.

The innocent persuasions of you-

400 will prove fatal that's my eloquence and enchant-

A few perfumed cards, a few inci-

and eucrue parties, and then let loose

the dancing girls and the champagne upon them, and the men will fall by thousands.

Read the 22nd and 23rd chapters of Numbers. For the fate of the preacher read Numbers 31:8.

Amongst the more stringent sects and their preachers there has always been a lingering prejudice against this ill-fated preacher and his methods. You might note 2

Peter 2:15: Jude 2:11 and Revelation 2:14.

The Jericho of Herod visited

Christ was situated a mile south of this mound of Rahab's city, at the mouth of the abysmal cleft where flows the brook Cherith. This is the friendly chasm that gave shelter and water to Elijah while the ravens furnished food, and beneath its stones at its mouth Achan and his family found an ignominious sepulcher. Here, where the abundant waters of the mountains flow

rose the magnificent Jericho of the Golden.

On the other side a vast forest of stately palms, extending eight miles

along the Jordan from the Dead Sea.

About it flourished the priceless balsam,

the precious and fragrant henna,

the umbrageous fig-sycamore, and all the precious fruits and brilliant flowers of almost every zone. To the eastern gate of this wonderful city came Jesus on his last journey to Jerusalem. The inevitable blind beggar sitting by the wayside cried

for mercy and received it.

Within the gates along the pillars and embazoned streets occurred

the jeweled episode of Zacheus, and to the benighted home of this publican and sinner came the in-effable joy of the Light that never ends. Again the stedfast march to Golgotha was resumed, and just beyond

western gate, the son of Timeus,

roused by the roar of the tramping

thousands, raised the blind man's current cry, Son of David have mercy on me!

Quickly the simple word of the compassionate Christ

bore to his long famished eyes

the sweet light of the Syrian sky.

A short distance beyond, our Lord's deathly wound was again arrested

by the same piteous cry from two more sightless beggars, whose eyes

were closed by a compassionate tear, and they, too, joined the shouting multitude that bore him

FOR WORK.

Next week the Press of Kentuck will meet at Lexington. The members of this organization should make good use of their time. Steps should be taken looking to an equity arrangement based on a subscription list, for all advertising, local and foreign. With keen perception the lines should be drawn between the advertising and the news item, methods should be adopted by which the local and daily press would be enabled to get news from all parts of the country, fresh and at a reasonable cost. The Advertising Law should have due consideration, the question of postage should be handled with great care, by committees vigilant of our interests. There are many other things to be considered and though a great number may wish to get off on the much-to-be-desired sight seeing trip, the body should not allow this to detract from their business interests.

TOO BAD

For the Republicans, that peace has been fully restored in Democratic ranks. In the Lexington and Louisville troubles matters have been fully adjusted by majority rule. Republicans had longed for a disruption beyond control of party leaders. They had talked it, magnified it, making mountains out of mole hills, and now with skies clear it will be for them to make it their business to work upon the feeling of individuals in the minority, hoping to cool party ardor and to gain their influence for their State nominee. In this they will be ineffective because the committeemen of the minority as well as majority are profound Democrats and are wise enough to see the game of their scheming opponents. State Democracy is again free of divisions and it remains for the people to follow the action of their leaders in November election. They will do it.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The ladies of the Somerset church realized $44.15 from the social given Saturday night. They served 28 gallons of cream.

The C. W. B. M. will on Thursday evening give a social at the residence of J. G. Trimble. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Verna Thompson entertained in honor of her guests. Misses Thompson and Lancaster, of Louisville, last Thursday evening.

Stanley Thomas entertained the Spencer Flinch Club on the evening of July 4, his birthday. It was one of the most enjoyable of the season. The ice cream and cake were delicious. The music was splendid. We sincerely hope Stanley will not forget the Club on his next birthday.

Settled.

The Democratic State Central Committee, in session at Frankfort, settled all troubles by the passing of the following resolution, and from this time on Louisville will see to it that all candidates are treated fairly:

Whereas, There are two committees in the city of Lexington, each claiming to be the legally authorized Democratic Committee of said city;

Resolved, That both of said Committees are hereby removed and the following persons named and recommended by T. T. Hedger, State Central Committeeman from Seventh Congressional district, be and same are declared the Democratic Committee of the city of Lexington.

"It is further resolved, That the present Democratic predict committee hereinafter appointed by John W. Vreeland, State Central Committeeman for the Fifth district, for the city of Louisville, and the same are now hereby approved and confirmed, and that said committeemen so appointed and approved shall so constitute the Democratic Committee in and for said city."

S. W. Hager was made Chairman of Campaign Committee, and H. R. Prewitt of 10th Congressional Committee.

Accident to Warehouse.

I. F. Tabb's new business house, although unfinished, has been used for the storing of wheat. Only a few thousand bushels had been placed on the first floor. On Saturday the brick piers in the basement crumbled under the weight and the first floor, back of the office, for a distance of probably 50 feet, sank in the center to the second floor, this causing the second and third stories to sink some. Slight damage was done to some of the girders, and the joists were pulled from the walls, but the walls were not injured. The contractors at once began the removal of wheat preparatory to raising the floor for placing substantial pillars. The most serious loss to Mr. Tabb is the delay. It is hoped that the defect will be repaired by Thursday night.

Word of Commendation.

Dr. J. W. Carter, of Emma Texas, in renewing his subscription says: "I can not do without your paper. The moral standard of your paper and the fearless way of expressing your sentiments is very commendable and worth many times the price."

From Cythiana.

D. D. Hurst, father-in-law of J. B. Marcus, the murdered lawyer at Jackson for which offense Curtis Jett and Frank White are accused, passed away yesterday Monday evening from Cythiana, where he had been taking steps to secure the attendance of Breathitt county witnesses. Mr. C. J. Little was appointed by Judge Osborn elisor to serve legal process on witnesses both for the prosecution and defense, the defense protesting. The Judge said: "It shall be my business to get the witnesses to Cythiana and before the Court." He was from the time he was appointed to the bench to the time he died.

Mr. Hurst was pleased with the expressions of the Judge and will expect just and lawful rulings.

accord with the great plan of salvation? Begin now—it will pay.

He Had Skipped.

On Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock intruders aroused two families at the home of Judge Cassidy. One, if not two men, was heard for some minutes before an alarm was given. Mr. Trimble called up police headquarters. Mr. Shannon responded and sent a boy for night policemen. R. F. Mastin, who in a few minutes had come through the front and rear entrance, having been notified to come in that way hoping to intercept the prowler. Mr.

Trimble had by going onto the rear porch, and also ringing telephone, evidently giving the intruder an opportunity to escape through the garden and east front yard. A search by Trimble, Mastin and —, who accompanied the policeman, failed to discover anyone.

We wish thus publicly to thank these gentlemen for their kindness and discharge of duty in trying to protect the property of our citizens.

We know that policemen often expose their lives in preserving the peace and guarding the property of a community, and if the people do not stand by them and protect them, there is but little encouragement for them to do their duty. When they are in the right, they may expect our sympathy and co-operation.

A Jackson Paper Makes Some Suggestions to Judge Redwine

About the Special Term.

We see from the daily papers that Judge Redwine says that he feels it to be his duty to preside at the special session of the Circuit Court here July 20. It must be admitted that the present bad state of affairs in Breathitt County has grown up under Judge Redwine's administration. We would be glad to see him redeem himself and restore order and guarantee protection to life and property in the proper way, but we doubt if he could do so now were he to try so very hard.

If he intends to make up the special grand jury from the names now in the jury wheel, the special term had as well be called off now and save further expense to the State. There are plenty of good men in this county who would make good jury commissioners and good jurors. The Circuit Judge appoints the jury commissioners; he is, therefore, responsible for the makeup of the juries. The people of this county know what kind of juries we have had for the past several years, and they know who have selected them. We have no right to expect a better jury to be drawn from the names now in the jury wheel than that we had at the last term.

If Judge Redwine wants to protect life and property and restore order here, let him appoint an honest man for elisor and let him summon a grand jury of honest, upright and fearless men who will do their duty though the heavens fall. Let him keep this jury in session long enough to go to the bottom of the trouble here and indict all the guilty parties and transfer all the cases outside of this district for trial where justice can be meted out to all parties. When he does this we will believe that he is in earnest about restoring law and order. The law abiding citizens of this county and State will not be satisfied with a mere perfunctory court. The law is supreme and must be enforced.

The eyes of the whole country are upon us. Let the officers of the law do their whole duty in enforcing the law.—The News.

Spider in Bread.

At Gainesville, Ga., Miss Mary Stevens and her little nephew, James Smith, are dead and three other persons are seriously ill as a result of eating bread in which a large spider had been kneaded. Miss Stevens and her nephew soon died in great agony.

The bread was examined, and particles of a huge spider were found scattered through it. The cook confessed that while she was kneading the dough the spider was worked in it by accident. The dough stood over night, and physicians say that the delay in cooking resulted in the dough becoming thoroughly impregnated with the spider's venom.

Marriage a Serious Matter.

Efforts to impress upon the minds of young people that marriage is a serious matter are not always successful. Louisianians, however, have taken an advanced step in this direction. Her Legislature at its last session passed an act punishing by imprisonment at hard labor those husbands who desert their wives or fail to support them. The act was thought to be unconstitutional, but the Supreme Court has decided that it is valid. So, before getting married, the young men of Louisiana will have to count the cost and figure on their chance of keeping out of the penitentiary.

Diversion from domestic and business cares is all right, if free from hurtful influences.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The opportunity is here, backed by Mt. Sterling Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on stranger's statements.

Read Mt. Sterling endorsement. Read the statements of Mt. Sterling's citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it: John Black, now retired, residing at the corner of Clay and Elm st's, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a good medicine and I have no hesitation in saying that if anyone who may be suffering with any of the complaints for which they are recommended will give them a good, fair trial they will be benefited.

For some years I was subject to attacks of rheumatism or lumbago in my hips, legs and in my shoulders.

At times the pain would be so severe in these parts that I could scarcely be able to get around, and there was also a difficulty with the kidney secretions which was an almost constant irritation. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at F. C. Duerson's drug store and although I did not give them a fair trial, not taking them as regularly as the directions called for, I can from the good effects I noticed say that I think highly of the merits of this remedy."

For sale by all dealers, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

To Take Charge of the Person and Property of the "Old Lion of White Hall."

"We the jury, find that Gen. C. M. Clay is of sound mind and incapable of attending to his business in a judicial way."

The foregoing verdict in the trial of Gen. Cassius M. Clay was rendered on Wednesday, July 8, in the Madison county Court, after a trial lasting a little over two hours.

Gen. Clay, who is confined in his room at White Hall, was not able to appear in court.

After the verdict of the jury was read the Judge appointed a committee to take charge of the estate and see that the invalid was properly cared for.

M'Knight Finally Placed Behind the Bars.

With six years of prison life staring him in the face former Banker J. M. McKnight, of Louisville, Ky., arrived in Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday morning in charge of a Deputy Marshal.

In the afternoon his curly locks were shaved, and he was ready for his life for the next six years.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Dragnet Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used any other for stock and never gave half as much satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.

J. B. BEISHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick men should eat food which is not to be cared for food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't starve them when you worthily stock food. Use the Black-Dragnet Stock and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible. Black-Dragnet Stock and Poultry Medicine unmolds the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock. If the animal is not cured give it a second dose of Black-Dragnet Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses eat Black-Dragnet Stock and give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. If solves the problem of making stock as much blood, flesh and fat as possible with the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealers.

THE SOUTHWEST.

By W. L. Williamson, Houston, Texas.

The coast country of Texas is a limited area extending from the Sabine River on the east to Corpus Christi on the west, averaging about 50 miles wide, and until a few years ago thought to be good for nothing but the grazing of cattle—a section, today, whose wonderful productiveness, general healthful climate, progress and development, is unknown to the general public, and with a future that cannot be told. The balmy breeze from the Gulf of Mexico brings health and comfort; the fertile soil propels to the inhabitants.

Winter in the coast country is more in name than a reality—occasionally a severe frost, preceded by a cool wind from the North, is the only reminder of winter, which is scarcely felt by even the tender plants. In summer the weather is without noticeable variation. The evenness of temperature makes it possible for the Farmer to work out of doors nearly every day in the year, and stock to thrive without the expensive shelter and feed as in the North. Sunstroke is unknown; average temperature 65°. This delightful climate, evenness of temperature and salt laden atmosphere, are a certain relief to sufferers of asthma, catarrh, hay-fever, etc.—periodical fevers entirely absent. The water is pure and abundant. No sand storms, high winds and cyclones touch this favored section.

The schools are a special feature of Texas—with a fund of $64,000,000 every facility is offered. Churches of every denomination are seen on every hand. Society of as high order as any where in the Union, and a more congenial, social people, never settled in any country.

The Tax Rate about 94 cents on the $100 being the fourth lowest in the U. S.

The land is level, just rolling enough to drain well; the soil of various colors from the light chelate to the black waxy, and of the most fertile. The abundant crops raised on this virgin soil stagger the farmer of the North whose high priced lands produce crops paying from $8 to $25 per acre, and after seeing will hardly believe his own eyes. What is raised in the Coast Country? Everything—corn, oats, rye, hay, rice; all kinds of fruits and vegetables. Every month something can be planted. Early vegetables grown for the Northern market mature two to three weeks earlier than in any other section; they command the highest price. The very best facilities to market the products is offered by 16 railroads and various steamship lines. The world is the market. Thriving towns and cities of the most modern type are sprung up as by magic, and the thrifty Farmers of the North are leaving their high priced lands and disagreeable climate, settling in the Coast Country and by their endeavor are making it blossom as the rose, and with a profit for their labor beyond their expectation. Houston is in the center of this beautiful country, a city of 80,000 with 16 railroads, and factories and foundries. Progress is the watchword—her streets alive with all kinds of business—the ultimate deep water port of the Southwest, the Government spending one million dollars dredging Buffalo Bayou, that ocean ships will land at her gates, affording a direct outlet for her cotton, rice, lumber, sugar, wheat etc. to the world. These are a few things which insure the future prosperity and greatness of the Coast Country, which tell you that these wonderfully productive plains which now can be bought at from $10 to $20 per acre, will in a few years leap to $50 and $100 and even higher because the crops taken off justify and demand it. That's why the opportunity to the home-seeker and investor is so great and certain and worthy the consideration of all who want to own their own homes. It's the very best way to insure a home for your family.

Rice is a most profitable crop. The land is prepared and the grain drilled same as wheat. Around the field, with a plow is thrown up a levee or ridge about a sweet potato ridge. In some sections, a well can be bored about 50 feet deep, a centrifugal pump and engine installed, with which to irrigate the crop or, when located near a canal water can be secured from it. When the rice is about 3 inches high the water is pumped into the field at a rate of 1000 gallons and kept there for 70 days when the grain begins to turn yellow like wheat the levee or ridge is cut and the water drains off. In 70 to 10 days the ground is sufficiently dry to go in with the binder and cut the rice which is handled and threshed same as wheat, and sold to the rice mills. It costs approximately $100 per acre to equip a rice field and raise the first crop. The average yield is about 15 barrels per acre and brings an average of $3 per barrel. A larger per cent raises from 15 to 25 barrels and for the better grades realize $3.50 to $5 per barrel. The Renter usually makes enough to buy his own farm after the 1st 2 years, but in some cases in the summer a crop of hay, averaging 1 to 2 tons per acre can be cut. In October the same and put in cattails will yield 30 to 35 bushels per acre and cut in rice, making 3 crops in one year. There is no such thing as raising rice on low marshy land in Texas. All the rice lands are rolling and drained well.

Wedding Anniversary.

Thursday, July 9th, children, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grand children, nieces, nephews and cousins assembled at the country home of Allen Prewitt, the occasion being the thirty sixth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Prewitt. Theirs is a beautiful Bluegrass home. Ornamental and shade trees, rare flowers and potted plants served as decorations, while the birds went from limb to twig warbling notes of praise, and to the thoughtful it would be only a little fanciful to say he was an invited guest and considered himself a master of the day the more enjoyable. To look out and over the broad acres of bluegrass, dark-hued growing corn bins well filled with rich har-vests, and away from the favored material into happy faces of parents, children and kindred, only the heart of stone could suppress the glorious, soul-inspiring hymn "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." The company entered into the joys of the occasion that made all happy.

May these good people with joyful hearts,度过 many anniversary corners, to the golden, the diamond, with beautiful silver locks, and all the while under favored skies.

The elegant dinner was served in the yard under the heavy foliage of trees at Mr. Prewitt's old plantation. Among the guests were the following: Seven children, Henry R., Marcus A., Richard R., Florence Jackson and Mrs. Jack McChord, of Winchester; Mrs. C. T. Evans and Miss Julia, ten grand-children, Hon. Caswell Prewitt and family, Clifton Prewitt and family, N. B. Young and wife, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. P. Draper and family, of Winchester, (his wife being Miss Clay Prewitt, niece of Mr. Allen Prewitt), Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins, of Lexington, and a number of young people, friends of Miss Julia.

Trip South.

J. G. Trimble returned home on Friday night from Memphis where he had been for three weeks looking after his large real estate interests in that city. While absent he partook of the hospitality of his brother Frank for a week, at his cotton plantation known as "Calloosa" 150 miles below Memphis in Washington. He is from there for the summer on the east side of Sunflower, a tributary of the Yazoo. It is about 100 feet wide and navigable for steam boats at all seasons of the year. He says that country is the sportsman's paradise, as good fishing and hunting can be found in every direction. The river and neighboring lakes furnish large quantities of trout, fish, deer, game, experience and the forest abounds with a great many deer, a few bear and a bountiful supply of wild turkeys and ducks. His brother's farm of 1425 acres is for sale at $30 per acre, 1050 acres of which is in cultivation and is regarded as the cheapest farm in the delta, also has 3,000 acres adjoining unimproved, and for sale at $10 per acre. Last week in the counties of Bolivar and Leflore, Miss., in addition to the purchases heretofore made, his firm contracted for 7,000 acres, the soil of which is of inexhaustible fertility, and never overflows, and he thinks the "Delta of Mississippi" offers greater inducements to capital for investment than any country he ever saw. Some of the finest unimproved farming land in the country can be purchased at from $7 to $10 per acre.

There are some things which can't be improved. One of these things is the "QUEEN QUALITY" Shoe for women. You can make it more elaborate, you can decorate it, embellish it, use costly materials and all that. But for $100 a pair than "QUEEN QUALITY" having speed, style, and all the great essentials of FIT and STYLE. This means that mechanically it is perfect. As for its appearance, the fact that one hundred thousand women choose it instantly above all other shoes would seem to indicate that it is attractive. Why don't you go as far as the next town the next time you go to the store? It costs nothing to see them fit your foot.

You Cannot Make a Better Shoe

Boots, $3.00. Oxfords, $2.50.

Fast-color Eyelets used exclusively.

The regular meeting of the Young People's Society which was announced to meet at the home of Mrs. J. D. Harper on Thursday evening of this week, has been called off. Rev. Abbott, the pastor,

When it was commonly agreed that there was to be a slaughter of prices on goods in our line in Mt. Sterling. We did not have to lock ourselves up to keep our opinions from carrying us up into the realm of self-conceit. Then, like in all other things,

We were Bold, Open and to the Front,

And when the signal was given to start

WE DID NOT HAVE TO GET OUT
REVISED PRICES
TO MEET COMPETITION!

We set the pace and left the revising for others. By the way, we think our competitors think we sell extra good goods, because some them beg the parties from whom we buy to sell them the same goods, to which we sometimes agree, provided we receive royalty.

Our motto is now, and has always been,

Stand by Every

Representation Made!

On this basis we defy competition to show the increase in business we have had during the last five years.

We are in This Sale to Lead!

Not one item has been reserved. Many are sold at less than cost.

There are More Men Wearing
H. S. & M. Clothing

Than any other one brand in America.

The Same is True of Hanan Shoes.

For $3.50 or $4.00 Shoes, 1000

Men around here will swear the HEYWOOD is the best.

We sell more LION SHIRTS than any brand in town.

See our prices on all lines.

You'll find out a thing or so. If you don't buy from us we won't be mad.
